FAMED COMPOSER

Carrie Jacobs Bond, beloved California song writer, was honored at the Wisconsin State society's celebration at the Exposition yesterday. The author of "Day is Done," "The End of a Perfect Day," and

"The Hand of You" played and sang two of her latest compositions, "Remember to Forget" and "My Garden," written in the last 12 months.

The House of Hospitality auditorium was packed and many were turned away. A. F. Larson, accompanied by Edith Gottried, many and the Road's most famous. turned away. A. F. Larson, accompanied by Edith Gottfried, sains two of Mrs. Bond's most famous ballads, "The Hand of You" and "End of a Perfect Day."

Miss Myrtle Strachota, "Miss Wisconsin" for the Exposition, a Polish beauty of Campbellsport, Wis, was seated on the dais as the official representative of Wisconsin. Mrs. Ada May Clocum, president of the local Wisconsin State society, presided at the House of Hospitality entertainment and introduced Mrs. Bond, whom she escorted to the piatform, and presented her with a huge bouquet. Capt. T. J. Molinari, president of the Federated State societies, was master of ceremonies. R. G. Hunter, the federation's public relations representative, assisted.

William E. Harper, former state senator, spoke. Elwood T. Bailey, vice president of the Exposition welcomed the Wisconsinites. George Marston spoke on "Early Days in Wisconsin!"

The several thousand former and present Wisconsinites enjoyed their day exceedingly. They spread over the grounds and "did" the Exposition thoroughly. When, late last night, they drifted through the turnstiles, hotel-bound and homeward-bound, the concensus was, "Isn't it grand"

A wail of disappointment went up

A wail of disappointment went up from thousands of children when the announcement was made in yesterday's Union that Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 2, would not be a "nickel" day for the children.

Exposition officials were deluged with telephonet protests. "What's the big idea?" screamed a 10-year-old to Frank G. Belcher, president of the Exposition. "You goin' to get tuff with us?"
Chairman Davidson and Managing Chairman Davidson and Managing

Chairman Deviction and Managing Director Gildred received similar calls. They went into a huddle. "Who started this, anyway?" they asked. "These kids will mob us if we don't be good."

IDEA TO VISITOR IN HOLLYWOOD

SUNDIAL NOVEL

When Fibber (Jim Jordan)
McGee was visiting in Hollywood some time ago, he was invited to dine with a well-known writer. The father of his host was in town, getting his first glimpse of Hollywood. Noticing a smulial in the ward of a Revera sundial in the vard of a Bevera sindial in the yard of a Beverly Hills mansion owned by a big-time producer, he asked his offspring what it was for.
"To tell time," quoth the son.
"Isk, tsk," observed the old man, "What won't people think of next."

CHEAT THE HEAT! CLEAR HEADS COOL OFF WITH CALVERT!

Science says Calvert cools by "quicker radiation of heat from (body's) surface"

SCIENCE now confirms the instinctive good judgment of tropical countries, where whiskey is a 3-to-1 favorite over all other types of distilled spirits! It finds that CALVERT actually lowers body temperature . . . by driving heat from the center of the body to the surface . . . where it dissipates, evaporates, leaves you cool, fresh, refrigerated! So call for CALVERT ... the whiskey that not only leaves you cool tonight, but also, collected tomorrow . . . the whiskey that, enjoyed in gentlemanly moderation, lets you greet tomorrow with a smile! Clear thinkers are CALVERT drinkers. Use good judgment. Buy better whiskey. Call for CALVERT!
